

I find it appauling that you are trying to place limits on XM. The reason I have XM is because of all the sensoring that is done on radio today. I am an adult and parent. I feel paretns should watch what their children see and hear not the government. This is a complete violation of the first amendment. My taxes pay the salaries you all enjoy. It is about time you listen and leave XM alone.